

Fact Sheet on Detainees and Prisoners in Israeli Occupation Prisons

Total Number of Detainees

10,400 Total number of Palestinian detainees in Israeli occupation prisons as of June 2025 ,8 — this does not include thousands of detainees from Gaza who are being held in military camps amid ongoing forced disappearances.

(HaMoked – Center for the Defence of the Individual, as of June 2025 ,8)

As for the West Bank and Jerusalem, there have been 17,000 arrests since October 7, up until May 2025 ,1.

(Palestinian Prisoners' Club)

Earlier in April, Israel's Prison Authority and Ministry of National Security announced:

"The detention capacity for Palestinian detainees in Israeli prisons is 14,500, while the actual number of detainees exceeds 21,000."

6,000 Palestinians have been arrested by the Israeli army from the West Bank since the beginning of the war.

Child Detainees

440

child prisoners under the age of 18

(Palestinian Commission of Detainees and Ex-Detainees Affairs – June 2025 ,8)

Among them, 40 children are held under administrative detention.

The number of child arrests since October 7 has reached approximately 1,055 cases as of January 2025 ,1.

(Palestinian Prisoners' Club – January 2025 ,1)

Life Sentences

600

600 prisoners are serving life sentences (life imprisonment – up to 99 years).

The prisoner with the highest sentence is Abdullah Barghouti, sentenced to 67 life sentences, followed by Ibrahim Hamed, sentenced to 54 life sentences.

(Palestinian Commission of Detainees and Ex-Detainees Affairs – January 2025 ,1)

Female Prisoners

49

female prisoners in Israeli occupation prisons

(Palestinian Prisoners Club – June 2025 ,8).

Among them are two pregnant female prisoners in their fifth month of pregnancy: Rima Blouei from Tulkarm and Zahraa Al-Kawazbeh from Bethlehem.

Among them is also a mother from Gaza whose identity is known — prisoner Siham Abu Salem — and another mother who has lost two sons (martyr's mother), prisoner Haneen Jaber from Tulkarm, as well as a third prisoner who is a mother and is suffering from cancer.

A total of 525 cases of arrest among women in the West Bank and Jerusalem have been recorded since the beginning of the genocidal war.

It is worth noting that the majority of the female detainees in Israeli occupation prisons have been arrested because of their freedom of opinion and expression, under the pretext of «incitement» on social media platforms. Like all Palestinian prisoners, they are subjected to torture, starvation, systematic medical crimes, and collective isolation under harsh and difficult conditions, accompanied by repressive actions carried out by the prison system.

There are also 8 female administrative detainees currently held without charge or trial.

Freed prisoners from life sentences and long-term sentences prisoners serving life sentences were freed by the resistance in the first phase of the exchange deal.

296

295

prisoners serving long-term sentences were freed by the resistance in the first phase of the exchange deal.

Sick Prisoners

700

Sick prisoners are currently held in Israeli prisons.

Among them is Osama Amin Adais (34 years old) from Hebron, who is facing a concerning health condition. He underwent an amputation above the knee of his left leg after being shot by Israeli forces during his arrest on September ,9 2024. Additionally, he sustained another injury in his abdomen.

Withheld Bodies

665 Palestinian corpses are being held in numbered graves, refrigerators, and the Sdei Taiman military camp, some of them since the 1960s and 1970s, including young people, the elderly, children, women, and prisoners. Note that this data does not include the martyrs whose bodies are held from the Gaza Strip.

Since the beginning of the war, 149 bodies have been held, which represents more than half of the martyrs held since 2015. It also does not include the number of martyrs from Gaza whose bodies are held, which is estimated to be in the hundreds.

Among the martyrs whose bodies are held:

259 martyrs since the beginning of the aggression in October 2023.

67 martyrs from the prisoner movement.

59 martyrs who are children under the age of 18.

9 martyrs who are women.

The only information revealed about the bodies of martyrs from Gaza held by the occupation was in July 2024, when the Hebrew newspaper Haaretz reported that the Israeli occupation was holding about 1,500 bodies of Palestinians, whose identities were unknown. The bodies were stored in refrigerated containers inside the military base known as Sdei Taiman and were classified by numbers, not names. The newspaper mentioned that the bodies had reached a certain stage of decomposition, with some missing limbs and others lacking facial features.

(22) prisoners who were martyred and announced since the beginning of the genocide war have their bodies held, and they are among (33) martyr prisoners whose bodies the occupation continues to hold, whose identities have been announced.
